NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
INTERNATIONAL PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH
NINETY-SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION
QUADRENNIAL CONFERENCE
MAY 19-20, 2006

The Ninety-Sixth Annual Session of Conference (Quadrennial Session) was called to order in the New J. A. Culbreth Memorial Auditorium at Falcon at 9:00 AM by Superintendent Bishop D. Chris Thompson who welcomed the delegation.

Wiley Hughes led the delegation in singing "The Old Time Power" and "The Days of Elijah".

Bishop Thompson read John 3:5, I Thessalonians 4:3 and Acts 2:2 and invited God to "do it again"., To save, sanctify and fill with His Holy Spirit.

Rev. T. Elwood Long, Superintendent of Falcon Children's Home, and former Conference Superintendent led the delegation in prayer.

Bishop Thompson introduced the Presiding Officer, Reverend Edward Wood, Executive Director of Stewardship Ministries of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Reverend Wood read from Romans 12:1-3 and charged the delegation to give God their all, reminding them it was a "reasonable service".

The Presiding Officer called the Conference to order for the consideration of business.

The Decorum Committee Report was read by Chairperson, Mrs. Linda Thomas who moved the adoption of the report. The motion to adopt was seconded and the report was adopted by voice vote.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

DECORUM COMMITTEE REPORT
2006

"Let all things be done decently and in order." I Corinthians 14:40

I. INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

We, your committee on Decorum, recommend these rules of procedure to be observed for the transaction of business in the 2006 Quadrennial Session of the North Carolina Conference.

II. RULES OF ORDER

A. Procedures not specified in this report shall be governed by ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, Newly Revised.

B. A timekeeper and parliamentarian shall be appointed by the Chairman.

C. A chief teller and an adequate staff of tellers shall be appointed by the Conference Board for official counting of all balloting.

D. All speakers must be courteous in language and deportment.

III. BAR AND HOURS OF BUSINESS

A. The bar of the conference shall include the stage and four (4) center sections of the auditorium.

B. The hours of business shall be determined by the acceptance of a printed agenda, with the exception of such changes as may be made by the vote of the body.

C. Adjournment will not take place on the opening day of the conference until the election of the Conference Bishop has been completed.

IV. REPORTING PROCEDURES

A. Committee reports shall be mailed to all ministers and delegates at least three weeks prior to the quadrennial conference. Copies of reports will also be available at the first session of the conference.

B. Oral reports will be given by the conference Bishop and the Conference Treasurer. It is recommended that they limit their reports to a synoptic version rather than reading their entire printed report.

C. The only other oral reports will be made by the Conference Board members, Director of Church Education Ministries, Director of Evangelism/Missions, Supervisor of Hispanic Ministries, Conference Women's Ministries Director and Conference Men's Ministries Director. These reports shall be limited to three minutes.

V. RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions designed to be introduced from the floor of the conference that are not included in the Report of the Committee on Resolutions, shall be signed by a number of Conference members equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions Committee. The resolution shall be displayed on the multimedia screens.

VI. OBTAINING THE FLOOR

A. An adequate number of microphones (six suggested) shall be numbered and placed on the floor of the conference in addition to the stage microphones.

B. Any member desiring to speak shall move to the nearest microphone to seek and obtain recognition from the Chair by giving the number of his/her microphone.

VII. DEBATE

A. Members must confine their remarks to the question that is before the Conference.

B. When a question is under debate, the Chair shall endeavor to give equal opportunity to both the affirmative and negative speakers.

C. All speakers in debate shall be limited to three minutes for any one speech and no one shall be permitted to speak more than twice when there are others desiring to speak on the same question.

D. The Chair shall not entertain a motion for the previous question until a minimum of four speakers have been heard from either side of the question providing there are those who desire to speak on the question.

E. In the event of extended debate that becomes repetitious and, when in the opinion of the Chair, all pertinent information has been presented, the Chair in consultation with the Parliamentarian may present the question or subject under discussion to the body for a vote. This may be challenged and reversed by a majority vote of this body.

VIII. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

A. NOMINATIONS:

1. Nominations shall be made from the floor for all positions except those assigned to a designated nominating committee.

2. No motion shall be entertained to close nominations.

3. Any office holder who is at the conclusion of a second term or subsequent term(s) in his/her current office may be considered for nomination in keeping with the following General Conference ruling: "A motion, requiring a two-thirds ballot vote of the delegation to pass, may be offered to allow such office holder to be nominated along with others for that same office."

4. Prior to the vote, the chairman shall request all nominees to stand for the purpose of identification.

5. The names of all nominees and all voting results shall be displayed on the multimedia screens.

B. ELECTIONS:

1. All elections shall be determined by a majority vote.

2. All voting shall be by ballot unless there is only one nominee.

3. When electing a person for a single office:

   A. If there is no election on the first ballot, the four (4) nominees with the highest number of votes shall be run on the second ballot.

   B. If there is no election on the second ballot, the nominee with the lowest number of votes shall be dropped on the third and each succeeding ballot.

   C. In the event there is a tie vote, the conference shall continue balloting until there is an election.

4. When electing conference board members:

   A. Voting shall be done on separate ballots, simultaneously.

   B. If there is no election on the first ballot, the nine (9) nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be run on the second ballot.

   C. If one nominee is elected on the first ballot, only six (6) nominees shall be run on the second ballot.

   D. The nominee with the lowest number of votes shall be dropped on each succeeding ballot until the number of members needed is elected.

5. In the interest of the Kingdom of God and recognizing the multiplicity of the talents given to the Body of Christ, no individuals except Departmental Directors shall be elected to serve simultaneously on more than one Conference Board.

Respectfully Submitted:
Linda M. Thomas, Chairperson
Rev. Fernando Angulo
Rev. Wiley Clark

North Carolina Conference
Superintendent/Bishop D. Chris Thompson
A Year of Miracles
Annual Report - 2006

Everyone has a song. Some sing of despair. Some sing of hope. Some sing of the future. Some sing of the past. My favorite soul song is the first part of Psalm 103 – verses one and two. I catch myself singing this little chorus while walking, driving, and even in the midst of adversity. Sometimes the words jump out of me when I am in a line. Many has been the occasion when I realize I'm singing out loud. I know by the stares.

Allow me to sing my song as I reflect on 2006. "Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits." It was a great year. Praise His name!

Please note the following statistics. Do study and reflect on each column and each statement.

	Members	SBS	AM Worship	Churches
2006	28635	12282	20033	221
2005	27613	11789	18826	208
Difference	1022	493	1207	13
	3.7%	4.2%	6.4%	6.3%

The Oklahoma totals will be slightly less. The difference is that Oklahoma only records those churches that are listed as CTM's (Church Type Missions).

Ministers' Tithes Increased from $896,327.66 to $989,091.33. This was an increase of $92,763.67 or a net gain of 10.3%. We came so very close to 1 million. May we surpass that goal this year.

Conference Budget Increased from $917,160.28 to $972,274.90. This was an increase of $55,114.62 or a net gain of 6%. This was in the midst of a cutback of $150,000 due to the one-line report.

General Budget Increased from $771,374.02 to $894,489.85. This was an increase of $123,115.83 or a net gain of 16%. Presiding Bishop Leggett and others in Oklahoma City have expressed their deep appreciation.

Regular Missions (excluding DRUSA) increased by $103,000.00 to $1,594,000.00 (7.2%). Thank you Lord and thank you faithful churches, and pastors.

I cannot describe how thankful I am for these statistics. Yes they are only figures on a sheet of paper, BUT they reflect people, hard work, faith, etc. The Lord is at work in our midst!

The number of new churches listed here, 13, is a net increase. We also closed 6 churches last year. Churches do get sick and die, just like people. The difference is what happens after their demise. In North Carolina the inheritance is turned around and invested in new churches.

In 1996 the staff at the RDC and boards adopted the following goals. These were adopted after prayer and fasting. They were faith goals. Notice how close we are to these. In the number of churches – we surpassed the goal. Praise the Lord!

*S.B.S. is Systematic Bible Study (Sunday School)

We are making good progress.

I praise the Lord for the progress. However there is much yet to do.

My desire is that our Conference body will reflect the make up of our communities. We have a long way to go here. Thank the Lord for our first predominately African American Church last year – Breakthrough Revival Center, Greenville, North Carolina, Pastor Stacy Hilliard. This year Seed of Faith, Fayetteville has joined the Conference. Pastored by Reverend Marvin Smith, this church brings in 150 members. May many others follow.

Our Bible Study attendance in our churches must grow. Our people must be taught the Word. They must also know our doctrines.

The State of the North Carolina Conference is good. The Lord has blessed this, the oldest of all the 28 United States based Conferences.

Now allow me to speak somewhat of my personal relationship with the Lord and the ministry opportunities He has so graciously provided. I live in an up to date experience of salvation, sanctification, and Spirit's baptism. I desire to serve Him more today than ever before. My love for Him is greater than it has ever been. He is my Lord and coming King.

In 2006 I preached 161 times, was involved in 12 funerals, and 2 weddings. I conducted 48 church board meetings and 45 church business meetings. I placed 35 new pastors and worked with another 9 churches in seeking a pastor.

I chaired 13 Conference Board meetings and participated and/or chaired in another 24 departmental board meetings. It was my privilege to participate in 6 executive and/or full board meetings of Falcon Children's Home, 4 Holmes Trustee meetings and 4 Emmanuel College trustee executive board meetings.

A highlight of the year was the planning and preparation for the Azusa East Meetings. There were 18 planning meetings. I was pleased and thankful with Azusa East. Nearly 7,000 were in attendance. Over 50 were baptized in the Holy Spirit. For the first time representatives of the Pentecostal Holiness, Pentecostal Free Will Baptist, Church of God, Church of God of Prophecy, Assembly of God, and United Holy Church came together to worship and seek the Lord. Many independent churches came together as well. The services were powerful and Spirit anointed.

I could go on and on with facts but may I summarize by saying that it has been a joy this past year to serve as the Superintendent/Bishop of the North Carolina Conference. Betty, the Queen, has worked faithfully with me. Together we feel we are in the will of the Lord. We have put forth our best efforts of ministry unto Him. By His strength, and anointing, we will continue to do so.

Cindy Jacobs has declared the IPHC is God's secret weapon for these last days of building His church. John Dawson said we will be a church that would serve the whole Body of Christ. We will be a church that condemns no man, but rather is a church that is characterized by a Spirit of Adoption. Dawson went on to say that we would be a people of Liberty, a people of Radical Generosity, and that we would have a Ministry of Encouragement in discipling the nations. I believe the Lord is absolutely confident in his ability to cause us to inherit this.

May I express my appreciation to the members of the North Carolina Conference board. Two members rotated off last year – Reverend Roland Harrell and Reverend Elton Bryan. Well done good and faithful servants. Two new members were added – Reverend Oris Hubbard and Mrs. Linda Thomas. Sister Thomas is the first woman to serve on the Board. God is at work. In addition the Conference gave a vote to Reverend Charles Boyd and Reverend Luis Avila. This Board has marched forward with vision and faith.

I thank the Lord for the Conference Executives that worked with me. We work as a team! These are men of God. They worked sacrificially and faithfully. I salute these brethren.
Reverend Roland Harrell – Loan Officer and Assistant to Superintendent
Reverend Danny Nelson – Evangelism and World Missions
Reverend Charles Boyd – Church Education Ministries
Rev. Luis Avila – Assistant to the Superintendent for the Supervision of Hispanic Ministries

The Conference is blessed with an exceptional group of Resource Development Center staff. They serve with faith and sacrifice. Thank the Lord for Dolores Reynolds, Kay Glover, Tommy Vaughan, Gina Page, Nicole Turransky, Sarah Salter, Melissa Sanchez, and Reverend Michael Reynolds. These are the wheels that move the engine.

I praise the Lord for all the boards of the Conference. These men and women have sacrificed many hours and days to facilitate the work of the Lord and Conference. They each are loved and appreciated.

Allow me to mention with much love and respect the other Department and Ministry leaders. Space does not allow words of appreciation for each. They are all fantastic leaders. I would to God they could each be full time. They have served well. Congratulations and well done.
Reverend Jimmy Whitfield – Assistant Superintendent and Director of the School of Ministry
Patsy Deese – Women's Ministries
Ronnie Basden – Men's Ministries
Dr. Reverend Lydia Figueroa – WIN Prayer
Reverend Bobby Williams – DRUSA
Lydia Mills – Girl's Ministries

Minister's Records

1. All clergy shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the conference.
2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.
3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes and listed on the conference website. These churches are to be listed by districts.
4. Reports by both Church Secretary and Ministers shall be mailed in time to arrive at the Conference office by the tenth of each month. All churches shall report monthly and annually to the Conference. Annual reports are due in the Conference Office by January 10.

Pastoral Changes

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference.
2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the Manual of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. No exceptions will be allowed.
3. All churches and ministers shall work directly through the Conference Bishop when a pastoral change is desired.
4. If a pastor desires to move from his church his request shall be in writing to the Conference Bishop. A second letter which will be filed with the church in the event the Pastor moves, shall be sent to the Conference Bishop indicating the Pastor's desire to be moved, but not including personal information such as motives, personalities involved, etc.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference Bishop.
2. All candidates for the ministry shall be a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church at the time of their application for credentials.
3. All candidates shall satisfy the committee on Examination and /or Conference Board that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.
4. The Committee on Examination or the Conference Board shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character. A criminal background check shall be made on each candidate by the Conference.
5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine and reputation. Each candidate shall provide a credit report no more than six months old. The personal credit report shall not be distributed to the Committee but shall be reported on to the Committee by the Chairman, the Conference Superintendent.
6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed the courses of studies approved by the General Conference or equivalent offered by any college approved by the Conference Board.
7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight clergy members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis. The Hispanic Leadership Board shall examine Spanish speaking candidates and make proper recommendations to the Conference or Conference Board.

Deeds

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.

Local Church Boards

1. Eligibility for selection and tenure of service on the Church Leadership Team (Elders, Deacons, Board Members) will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.
2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the Official Board more than one member of an immediate family (husband-wife, parent-child, brother-sister, brother-brother, sister-sister) in its congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.
3. The local church shall not elect more than one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers' offices.
4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear the signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions committee. The resolution shall be submitted in writing.

Finances-Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.
2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly the percentage of its income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, The Conference Bishop may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.
3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the General Program of the denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of it's income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Children's Home, Education and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.
4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual. The Conference Bishop may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.
5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not retired) members shall pay the current rate of their income as set by the conference Board yearly for Conference Retirement. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing retirement benefits for the year (s) not paid.
6. Recommendations for salaries, benefits, etc. for Conference Officials, Pastors, Associate Pastors, etc. are to be found in the current Conference Finance Report.
7. The Conference Bishop shall confer with the church boards in the matter of Pastoral support where the need is apparent.

8. The rate for official travel shall be the current rate set by the Internal Revenue Service.
9. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses for one move of a retired minister up the limit set by the Conference Board.
10. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by the Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

VACATIONS

The Conference Bishop shall be given vacation on the same basis as pastors. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her department but not less than applies to pastors.

LOCAL CHURCH - MINISTERIAL RELATIONS

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor. Any effort to start a new church must be under the supervision of the Conference Bishop and the Evangelism Director.
2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not engage in any activity or conversation that would cause confusion and create a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.
3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Retired ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.
4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor. He/she shall also leave a complete file of minutes of all Church Board meetings.

Use of Conference Facilities

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall follow the guidelines as established by the Conference Board and shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

Death of a Minister

In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the office of the Conference Bishop shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The Conference Board Members will be notified by the Conference Office. Every effort shall be used to contact the ministers – phone, email, etc.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the Nominating committee for all Conference sessions and shall determine the name and number of committees needed.
2. The Conference Board will set the dates for all Conference training events (not department) and Falcon Camp Meeting.
3. The Conference Board and auxiliary Department leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conferences.

Revision of Bylaws

The Conference Board shall serve as the Standing Committee on Revision of Bylaws. All revisions shall be recommended to the Conference in session by the Revision Committee. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required to revise the Bylaws.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

Intro: We, your Committee on Resolutions, recommend the following:

I. OFFICIALS AND OTHER PERSONNEL OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

2. Assistant Conference superintendent
3. Secretary/Treasurer – He shall be a part-time salaried officer of the Conference whose job description shall include the Conference Secretary/Treasurer duties as spelled out in the Manual (pages 74-75, items f & g). The remainder of his portfolio and his honorarium shall be developed by the Conference Board. He shall be nominated by the Conference Board (with at least 2 names being submitted) and elected by the Conference body.
4. Evangelism/Missions Director – a full-time salaried Director of Evangelism and Missions shall be elected. His job description and compensation package shall be developed by the Conference Board in conjunction with the Conference Evangelism report.
5. Church Education Ministries Director – A full-time salaried Director of Church Education Ministries shall be elected. His job description and compensation package shall be developed by the Conference Board in conjunction with the Conference Church Education Ministries report.
6. Hispanic Representative – A Hispanic representative to the board shall be nominated by the Conference Board and elected by the Conference Body.
7. Board Members at Large. That four at-large board members shall be elected.
8. If a layperson has not been elected to the board, one of the four at large board members shall be a layperson. The Conference Board shall nominate at least two laypersons, one of which shall be elected to the board by the Conference Body.

B. All of the above persons shall have seat, voice, and vote on the Conference Board.

C. Loan Officer – A part-time Loan Officer shall be hired to chair the Loan Committee and oversee operation of the Conference Loan Fund. His/her job description and compensation package shall be set by the Conference Board and he/she shall be paid out of the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund.

D. Assistant to the Conference Bishop – A part-time assistant to the Conference Bishop shall be hired to assist him in the areas of Renewed Vision Projects, meeting with church boards, taking pastoral votes, installing new pastors, supervision the conference campus and other duties that will bring assistance to the Conference Bishop. The job description shall be written by the Conference Bishop and approved by the Conference Board. The Conference Board shall determine the compensation package. At the request of the Conference Bishop the Assistant to the Bishop will sit in with the Conference Board with seat and voice.

E. Hispanic Supervisor – A full-time salaried Bilingual Assistant to the Conference Bishop shall be hired for the supervision of Hispanic churches. The job description and compensation package shall be set by the Conference Board. At the request of the Conference Bishop the supervisor will sit in with the Conference Board with seat and voice. (Clarification: this does not prohibit the supervisor from being appointed from the membership of the Conference Board.)

II. HISPANIC LEADERSHIP BOARD

A. The conference will create a Hispanic Leadership Board consisting of no less than six members to serve with the Hispanic Supervisor. The Conference Bishop and Conference Board will develop job descriptions for members of the Hispanic Leadership Board.

B. This board will be nominated by the Conference Board and elected by the Hispanic convention according to the pattern of election of the North Carolina Conference examining Committee. Delegates to the Hispanic Convention shall be elected according to the same criteria of the Quadrennial Conference.

C. This board will work with the Hispanic Supervisor to examine and recommend ministerial candidates to the Conference Board, assist in quarterly Hispanic training events, assist the supervisor in oversight of Hispanic ministry, and in various other tasks assigned by the Conference Bishop/Hispanic Supervisor.

D. This board shall be directly amenable to the Conference Bishop.

E. In the area of Hispanic church planting the Hispanic Supervisor and Hispanic Leadership Board will continue to work with the Conference Director of Evangelism in locating areas and prospects for new Hispanic churches.

III. OTHER DEPARTMENTS WITHIN THE CONFERENCE

A. CHURCH EDUCATION MINISTRIES

1. The Church Education Ministries Board (consisting of the Assistant Director, Secretary/Treasurer, and three Board Members) shall be elected by the Conference in session.

2. Up to four additional Board Members may be appointed as needed. Both their appointment and term of office shall be made by the Director in conjunction with the C.E.M. Executive Board, and will be subject to approval by the Conference Board.

3. All members of the Church Education Ministries Board shall have seat, voice, and vote on the Christian Education Ministries Board.

B. WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

1. The minutes of the Women's Ministries convention shall be approved by this Conference in session.

2. Each local church is urged to organize a Women's Ministries to cooperate with the Conference and General Women's Ministries programs and projects.

3. Pastors should encourage local Women's Ministries to cooperate with the Conference and General Women's Ministries programs and projects.

4. It is recommended that each church purchase a copy of the Women's Ministries Leadership Manual and the Girl's Ministries Leadership Manual and that pastors and ministers familiarize themselves with said manuals.

5. It is requested that pastors lend full support to the Women's Ministries Founder's Day honoring the founder, Mrs. Lila Berry.

6. The Women's Ministries Department shall continue to be provided space in the Conference Evangel.

7. The Conference Women's Ministries Director will continue to serve as a member of the Superintendent's Advisory Council

8. In order to be well informed and better able to function as a member of the Conference Leadership, the Conference Women's Ministries Director is to be placed on the mailing list of each Conference Department.

C. DEPARTMENT OF RETIRED MINISTERS. The Conference Board shall appoint a Director and six Board Members to this Department, which shall have a page in the Conference Evangel, and be included in the Conference Budget. The term "Retired Ministers" is to be used in all publication, mailings, and announcements instead of "Superannuated Ministers.:

D. ARCHIVES DEPARTMENT

1. The Conference Board shall appoint an Archives Director and six Board Members.

2. The Archives department shall be given a page in the Evangel each month and the department shall be included in the Conference Budget.

3. Each local pastor and/or church board is urged to appoint a church historian and set aside a safe place in their church for church records, bulletins, pictures, etc. that pertains to their church history.

4. Every church is urged to give prayerful consideration to presenting or sharing these items with our conference archives center.

5. Individuals and congregations are encouraged to give financially toward this project.

E. MINISTER'S WIVES FELLOWSHIP DEPARTMENT. The Conference Board will appoint a Director and six Board Members. The Ministers' Wives Fellowship will be included in the Conference Budget and given a page in the conference Evangel.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

CHURCH EDUCATION MINISTRIES COMMITTEE REPORT

2006

Church Education Ministries is the ministry of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church primarily devoted to equipping the church for her mission to reach the world. The Lord commanded His church: "therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit..." (Matthew 28:19) (NIV). The Church Education Ministries Department is an integral part of God's plan for accomplishing this task. Church Education Ministries is the discipleship and teaching ministry of the church, with the goal of making, training, and multiplying disciples of all ages to fulfill Christ's mission for the church, and of maturing believers for effective service and obedience to God (Matthew 28:20).

I. CHURCH EDUCATION MINISTRIES DEPARTMENT STRUCTURE

A. A full-time Church Education Ministries Director shall be elected by this Conference in session.

B. The Assistant CEM Director, and a Secretary/Treasurer shall be elected by this Conference in session. The Church Education Ministries Director, the Assistant Church Education Ministries Director and the Secretary- Treasurer shall serve as the Executive CEM Board.

C. Three CEM Board members shall be elected by this conference.

D. The CEM Director in consultation with the executive CEM Board may with approval of the Conference Board, appoint up to four (4) board members.

The term of office of the appointed board members will be recommended by the CEM Director in consultation with the CEM Executive Board and will be approved by the Conference Board.

E. All CEM Board members (elected and appointed) will have seat, voice, and vote.

1. The CEM Director and Executive Board may assign board portfolios as needed.

2. The CEM Board shall serve as a deliberative, legislative and administrative board for Church Education Ministries in the North Carolina Conference.

F. The CEM Director shall form a Director's Council consisting of the CEM Board and as many additional members as he/she desires for the purpose of vision-casting, department and ministry evaluation and for planning the ministries of the CEM Department. The term of service will be at the discretion of the CEM Director.

1. The Director's Council shall meet at the discretion of the Director, but not less than once per year.

2. The Director's Council shall act as an advisory council.

3. The report of the Director's Council will be taken by the CEM Board as a guide for administrating the ministries of CEM. The nature of the relationship between the Director's Council and the CEM Board shall be cooperative.

4. Members of the Director's Council may carry departmental portfolios at the discretion of the CEM Director in consultation with the CEM Board.

G. Should the position of CEM Director be vacated before the term has expired, the Assistant CEM Director will be asked to fill the remainder of that term.

H. The CEM Director's salary and benefits shall be set and reviewed by the Conference Board annually.

I. Responsibilities of the Conference CEM Director.

1. The CEM Director shall cast vision for and promote Church Education Ministries on the Conference level. He/She shall be available to assist local church leadership in implementing the CEM vision and programs in the local church.

2. A job description for the CEM Director shall be adopted by the CEM Board and reviewed and revised as needed.

3. Pastors and local CEM Directors are encouraged to extend invitations to the Conference CEM Director to visit the local church for the purpose of training and promoting CEM programs and ministries.

4. The CEM Director may appoint ministry teams made up of representatives from the districts to assist in the promotion of CEM programs and ministries.

5. The CEM Director will plan and promote CEM training events on the conference and district level to help develop and enhance CEM ministries.

J. Responsibilities of the CEM Board.

1. The CEM Board will assist, advise, and support the CEM Director in carrying out his/her vision for the ministries of the CEM Department. "Plans fail for lack of counsel, but with many advisers they succeed." (Proverbs 15:22) (NIV).

2. Each elected or appointed CEM Board Member and members of the Director's Council with portfolios will serve on the staff of Falcon Youth Camp one session each year.

3. CEM Board Members and members of the Director's Council with portfolios will make themselves available when possible to assist in Talent Quest and other CEM programs.

4. CEM Board Members and members of the Director's Council with portfolios are expected to use their talents and expertise in ministry to help develop and offer training opportunities to the Conference through the CEM Department.

II. RESOLUTIONS

A. All local church CEM departments should pay tithes to the Conference CEM Department on all regular receipts.

B. All who hold leadership and teaching positions in Church Education Ministries, both on the Conference and local church level, shall be faithful in paying their full tithes into the church or Conference.

C. The ministries and programs of the CEM Department include, but are not limited to, the following: Sunday School/Systematic Bible Study, Children's Ministries, Youth Ministries, Royal Rangers, Bible Quest, Youth Quest, Kidz Quest, Global Quest, Junior and Teen Talent Quest, Senior Adults Ministries (Prime Timers), Family Life Ministries, Singles' Ministries, Equipping the Saints School of Ministries, and other specialized ministries, programs and events.

D. Youth pastors and all who hold credentials in the North Carolina Conference and those who are involved in youth and children's ministries are encouraged to volunteer one session of service to Falcon Youth Camp each year.

E. Senior pastors with staff are encouraged, wherever feasible, to invite youth and children's ministry staff to volunteer one session to Falcon Youth Camp each year without penalty.

F. The CEM Department is committed to supporting the vital ministry of Systematic Bible Study for the purpose of maturing the saints and for developing the spiritual, biblical and doctrinal integrity of the local church. Therefore...

1. Pastors and churches of the North Carolina Conference are encouraged to take advantage of the training and resources made available by the CEM Department for the revitalization of teaching ministries in the local church, particularly Sunday School and/or Systematic Bible Study.

2. Pastors and leaders of the local church are encouraged to take a fresh look at Sunday School or Systematic Bible Study programs with a view to taking steps to revitalize the teaching ministry of the local church through either a renewed commitment to an Existing program or structure, or through innovative planning and restructuring.

G. In view of the fact that 43% of adults were saved before they reached 13 years of age,[1] the CEM Department is committed to Children's Ministries, that is ministry to children before they reach their teens.

1. Pastors, Youth Pastors and Children's Ministries leaders are encouraged to take advantage of the resources provided by the CEM Department, including annual training events, for Children's Ministries.

2. Children's Ministries leaders are encouraged to make contact with the Children's Ministries representative on the CEM Board and to explore ideas and resources available for Children's Ministries beyond those offered by the CEM Department.

H. Each local church is strongly encouraged to participate in the General CEM Offering.

I. The CEM Department shall offer Conference wide and District training events each year for the purpose of providing relevant and practical resources for equipping local Church Education Ministries.

J. The CEM Department will endeavor to provide resources and training for Hispanic and other ethnic groups in their native language where possible. Assistance will be offered to help these communities develop strong CEM programs in their churches.

K. The CEM Department will continue to sponsor the college scholarship program, making scholarships available to qualified students attending IPHC or affiliate schools of higher learning. Local churches are encouraged to establish scholarships for students from their churches who attend one of these schools.

L. The CEM Department will continue to promote IPHC and affiliate Institutions of higher learning and encourage our young people and ministerial students to attend these schools.

M. The CEM Department in conjunction with the Conference Board, will work toward developing a program that would offer ministers, church workers, and laity of the North Carolina Conference college level theological education through extension courses and the Conference School of Ministries.

N. The CEM Board will remain open to the future possibility of hiring a full-time Children's and Youth Ministries Director to serve Children's and Youth Ministries in the North Carolina Conference. The CEM Director, in consultation with the CEM Board will submit recommendations, a job description and Demonstrate the feasibility to the North Carolina Conference Board at such time he/she feels that the CEM Department is ready to hire a Children's and Youth Ministries Director. The appointment of a Children's and Youth Ministries Director will be made by the CEM Board and approved by the Conference Board. The Children's and Youth Ministries Director will be amenable to the Conference CEM Director.

O. The CEM Department will serve as a catalyst to promote the highest standard of Christian living with respect to morals and values in the home, church, community, nation, and world. The CEM Department will promote programs that encourage Christians to maintain the highest standards of holiness in words, thoughts, deeds, relationships, and outward appearance in order to reinforce our witness to the world of the love of Christ. "You are the light of the world... Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your father in heaven." (Matthew 5:14, 16).

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

EVANGELISM AND WORLD MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION AND STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

In Acts 1:8, Jesus Himself left His church the responsibility for world evangelization, "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth". The mandate that the Lord gives us in this passage requires that we as His church develop strategies to reach the unsaved locally, regionally, cross-culturally, and internationally. Every local church and every believer are to take to heart the injunction of Our Lord to reach out to the lost on these four fronts. The two avenues whereby each church and each believer may fulfill task of world evangelization are local evangelism and world missions. Jesus said unto His disciples, "The harvest truly I plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray you therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His Harvest.") Matthew 9:37,38). In obedience to the commands of our Lord, each Church must develop local ministries to reach those dying without Christ, and each Church must pray for and fund the workers God calls into the fields of harvest. As the hour is critical each member of each constituent church of the North Carolina Conference must take seriously and personally this Divine mandate. We, as your Committee on Evangelism and World Missions, submit these recommendations as a method to unite in spreading the glorious Gospel both near and far.

II. OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

A. There shall be a Director of Evangelism and World Missions (referred to henceforth in this report as "the Director"0 elected by the Quadrennial Conference.

B. The Director shall serve as head of both the Evangelism Board and the World Missions Committee, coordinating the activities and ministries of both departments.

C. The Director shall serve full-time. The Conference Board shall determine his/her salary and benefits.

D. The Director's job description shall include such functions as coordinating summer internship programs; recruiting and training evangelism pastors and church planters; monitoring and evaluating churches on the Evangelism Program; investigating and recommending locations for new churches; planning funding for evangelism projects; training effective resource individuals throughout the Conference and establishing growth goals.

E. The Director shall be encouraged to avail himself/herself of opportunities to learn and develop, attending all such workshops and seminars as are consistent with the responsibilities of his/her office.

F. He/she shall place a high priority on staying abreast of current trends in World Evangelization, keeping the Conference in the vanguard of the work of God. In order to insure the integration of our endeavors into the General Church's goals, the Director should avail himself/herself of training opportunities in soul winning, church growth, and church planting.

G. The Director shall maintain a variety of resources relating to personal evangelism, church growth, revitalization, spiritual growth, and shall make these available to the churches.

III. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Conference

      (2) A Unite Secretary, who shall be a minister
      (3) An Anglo Pastor
      (4) A layman
      (5) An Ethnic representative where feasible
   b. These District Units shall plan, coordinate, promote, and execute the agendas of both the Evangelism and World Missions Departments.
   c. The Evangelism Board, with recommendation from the Evangelism Director, shall fill any vacancy occurring on a District Unit During the Quadrennium.

C. Local Church

1. Each local church board shall work with the pastor to ensure that opportunities for evangelism and spiritual growth are provided throughout the year, to include (but not limited to) revivals, seminars, and workshops, and to ensure that evangelists and speakers at such opportunities are adequately compensated.
2. Each local church shall have a Missions Director, who is to be appointed by the pastor and church board,.
3. Each local church should also have a local World Missions Board to assist the local Director and pastor in promotion of World Missions.

IV. SPECIFIC PROGRAM RELATING TO EVANGELISM

A. Conference

1. The main thrust of this Department shall be the encouraging, teaching, and implementing effective soul winning strategies for the clergy and churches of the North Carolina Conference, enabling them to reach out to their communities for the purpose of reaching the lost. This shall be accomplished focusing on three priorities.
   a. PERSONAL SOUL WINNING. In view of the fact that much effective soul winning is based on an existing relationship between the "evangelist" and the evangelized, the Director shall continue to promote aggressive and effective soul winning programs throughout the Conference. Such programs include, Friendship Evangelism, The Contagious Christian, Evangelism Explosion and Reach 3.Plant3.

b. REVITALIZING EXISTING CHURCHES. In order for existing churches to be effective in soul winning, they must be spiritually and organizationally healthy. The Director will work with the pastor ini leading churches that have plateaued or are in decline, in remedial church growth strategies. The Director will attempt to customize such strategies for any local church and pastor committed to their particular church's revitalization.

c. PLANTING NEW CHURCHES. As research has shown that the most effective evangelism often occurs as a newly organized church experiences a surge of growth, the Director shall continue a strong emphasis on organizing new churches as a means of reaching the unsaved. He/she will also continue to promote the Reach 3/Plant 3 program throughout the Conference with a goal to become a church planting movement.

2. Recognizing the importance for on-the-field training of our ministerial students, the Director should work with students, pastors, churches, and with our colleges and other schools approved by the Evangelism Board in arranging summer internships.
   a. When such an internship is confirmed, the Evangelism Department shall pay a supplement to the participating church.
   b. The Director and Evangelism Board shall set the amount of such supplements, but it should be no less than $400.00.
   c. To be eligible the church must provide at least an eight-week internship.
   d. The Director should have available for consultation with the churches a list of students seeking such internship.
3. The Director and his board shall plan district and area training sessions on vital evangelism themes, with promotion of the programs continuing in the District Fellowship Conferences.
4. The Director and Evangelism Board shall promote the Mission M-25 Ministry of our General Church with its four-fold outreach, Jail-Prison, Rehabilitation-Recovery, Homeless-Hungry and Biker-Motorcycle Club.
5. Current mileage reimbursement allowed by the IRS shall be paid to the Board Members when traveling on Director – approved Evangelism Department business.

6. The Director , in consultation with the Evangelism Board, shall determine the criteria for admitting and continuing churches on the Conference Evangelism program for oversight and financial support.
7. The Evangelism Board shall determine the number of full-time evangelists supplemented by the Department. In order to receive this supplement he/she must be a full-time evangelist who meets the criteria set by the Evangelism Board and approved by the Conference Board. He/she must submit a written revival schedule each quarter in advance. The Conference Evangelism Board shall approve all requests for supplement.
    a. Those approved by the Board as Conference Evangelists shall receive Conference insurance and supplements for utilities, Camp Meeting and other Evangelism Board approves Conference functions, provided they attend at least 75% of the services. Each Conference Evangelist shall receive a love gift at Christmas.
    b. The Evangelism Board shall determine the amounts of supplement and gifts.
    c. The Evangelism Board shall determine the continuing eligibility of Conference evangelists.
8. The Evangelism Department shall encourage retired ministers, bi-vocational ministers, holders of Local Church Minister's Licenses, and laymen to become involved in church planting projects in the conference, making themselves available to be trained and used in Department projects.
9. The Evangelism Board will determine the eligibility of a full-time pastor to receive supplemental income from the Department if he is also receiving secular income. The Board shall determine the supplemental status of the church that the minister pastors.
10. Each pastor and evangelist is strongly urged to consider enrolling in the Graduate School program offered by the Southwestern Christian University. The Evangelism Board may offer incentives, supplements, and scholarships toward the cost of this program as it deems feasible

B. Distict

1. The District Units shall meet at the call of the District Director, who shall determine the time, place and frequency of such meetings.
2. The District Unites shall execute and promote the Evangelism Program as developed by the Director and the Evangelism Board.
3. The District Units shall assist the District Directors in disseminating information on the Evangelism emphasis being promoted by the Conference and urging cooperation and participation of District churches and pastors.

4. The District Units shall assist the District Directors in promoting fellowship among the District pastors and churches.
5. The District Units shall assist the District Directors in laboring to fulfill the growth goals projected for their districts.

C. Local Church

1. As the local church is the institution Jesus had in mind when He said, "I will build my church", we recognize the local church as the primary evangelizing agency of the Kingdom of God.
2. Every pastor should accept the challenge of the Reach 3/Plant 3 program by promoting within the congregation an effective method of personal soul-winning. Each church should be actively involved in training people for evangelism.
3. The leadership of each local church should accept the regional and cross-cultural challenge of the Reach 3/Plant 3 program by seeking appropriate locations and opportunities for church planting among both the Anglo and non-Anglo ethnic population. These opportunities should be brought to the attention of the District Director or the Conference Evangelism department.
4. Each pastor and board shall promote the M-25 Ministry of the General Church with its four-fold outreach. Pastors are encouraged to appoint a local church point man/woman who will lead this ministry under the director of the Pastor.

V. SPECIFIC PROGRAM RELATING TO WORLD MISSIONS.

A. Conference

1. The Conference missions Committee will meet as often as necessary to develop, promote, and correlate the Conference and General World Missions Program, but no less than twice annually.
2. The job description of the Conference Director of Evangelism and World Missions include those responsibilities recorded in the General World Missions Director's Manual as well as those developed by the Conference Missions Committee and approved by the Conference Board.
3. The Director and Conference Missions Committee shall set annual goals and promote these goals to the churches using various methods such as correspondence, training seminars, Missions F.E.S.T., rallies, conventions, the Evangel, Mission meals, etc.
4. The Director shall keep an accurate record of the expenses involved in facilitating the Conference World Missions Program and shall turn in these approved expenses to the General World Missions Department for reimbursement.
5. The Conference shall continue to provide residences rent-free, as long as economically feasible to Pentecostal Holiness missionaries, to include the Johnny Brooks Home, Millie Culbreth Evans Missions Home, the J.H. King Missions Home, all located in Falcon and the Jackie Wilson Missions Home in Clinton. The Director shall supervise these residences, raise funds for renovation as necessary, and be responsible for overall operation of these homes. Missionaries who use these facilities will reimburse the Conference for their utilities. The Director shall investigate the possibilities of establishing other missionary apartment and/or homes within the Conference.

6. The Director will be provided a page in each Evangel for the purpose of promotion and sharing missions' information and material.
7. The Director shall continue to expand the Conference World Missions mailing list network to include all pastors, local Directors, and other persons in the North Carolina Conference interested in world missions. The purpose of this network is to report missions' news, missionary needs, etc., and to serve as a prayer network.
8. The Director shall inform the local churches of promotional materials that are available from the General World Missions Department, and shall keep a good supply of these materials on hand at the Conference Office.
9. The Conference Missions Committee shall continue the system of recognition and reward for those churches and pastors who excel in world missions promotion and/or fund raising.
10. The Director shall designate "non designated conference missions' monies" for N.C. Conference missionaries and special projects of critical need.
11. The Conference Missions Committee shall continue to sponsor at least one day of training for pastors and local Directors annually (Missions F.E.S.T.) and also sponsor district training events as feasible.
12. The Director will meet with individual District Directors as necessary and will plan one District Director's Workshop annually for the purpose of training and informing them of the World Missions Programs.
13. The Director should attempt to coordinate with "Men of Action" of the Men's Ministries and the General World Missions Department in order to initiate work projects on various mission fields.

B. District

1. The job description of the District Directors shall include those duties recorded in the General World Missions Director's Manual as well as those developed by the Conference Missions Committee.
2. The overall purpose of the District Director with regard to World Missions is to be the extension of the Conference Director of World Missions into the District.

C. Local Church

1. The local Missions Directors and Local Missions Board shall assist the pastor in promoting missions in the church, endeavoring to coordinate the missions program into the total program of the local church
    a. Each local church Missions Board shall set and promote to the church annual goals for World Missions.
    b. Each Missions Board shall devise a strategy for their church's participation in the annual "Global Outreach Offering", using materials and resources available from the Conference Director.
    c. The local Missions Director and as many members as possible of the Local Missions Board shall attend all District and Conference World Missions events.
    d. The Local Missions Director shall keep a supply of missions promotional materials for distribution to members.
    e. The Local Missions Director shall endeavor to get the Worldorama into each member's home.
    f. The Local Missions Director and members of the local Missions Board shall be informed of the local church's missionaries (their needs, work assignments, etc.) and report to the church regularly.
    g. They shall see that the W.I.N. Director, each family and each prayer warrior in the church has a copy of the Prayer Link.
2. Each local church shall set a Sunday each month as "World Missions Sunday". World Missions "Faith Commitment" contributions and World Missions offerings are to e received on this Sunday.
3. Each local church is encouraged to adopt a local "World Missions budget", utilizing faith commitments to missions and missionaries. Once a church commits to support a missionary, notice shall be sent to the Conference Missions Director and to the missionary.
4. Each local church shall strive to observe a special Annual Missions Emphasis (F.E.S.T., convention, rally, international meal, etc.) and if at all possible, missionaries should be given missionaries' salary and support during the local emphasis. It is a goal of the department that each church in the Conference have at least one missionary they support and pray for regularly.
5. Recognizing that children around the world are in crisis, every church in the North Carolina Conference should participate in the "People to People" program and consider adopting at least one child per church family.
6. Since our missionaries are dependent on the prayers and support of local churches to survive and remain on the field, every church in the Conference should have a missionary speaker once a quarter and allow these missionaries to take "Faith Commitments".

7. Each local pastor and church should accept the international challenge of the Reach 3/Plant 3 program by striving to support a church plant on the mission field. The N.C. Conference will emphasize churches "Mothering" daughter churches.

VI. CONCLUSION

With heartfelt gratitude we express appreciation to the pastors, churches, and church members for their support in the outreach of the Evangelism and World Missions programs. With special thanks to the Lord we acknowledge the growth of our Hispanic ministry, as we now have several organized Hispanic churches and numerous additional Hispanic "preaching points". We hope also to see growth among other ethnic groups which will enable us to reach our goal of developing a multi-ethnic conference. We are humbly grateful for record-setting accomplishments with regard to missionary support and World Missions projects. We praise the Lord for His miraculous blessings, and we prayerfully request your continue participation and cooperation that the coming quadrennium will be the most effective ever. In the words of Psalm 118:23, "This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. To God be the Glory, Great things He hath done."

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT
2006

"God's work done in God's way will never lack God's supply."
Hudson Taylor, Missionary to China (1832-1905)

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:"* 2 Corinthians 9:8

Recognizing that Biblical Stewardship requires accountability to God and man (Hebrews 13:17) and knowing that the eyes of the government and the world are on the Church, and being confident that the blessing of God is essential if we are to see the growth for which we are praying and working, and understanding that all the churches of the North Carolina Conference have entered into a covenant agreement to be unified part of the greater body of Christ, and in particular, members of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church, we call all our ministers, churches and members to a renewed commitment to Biblical Stewardship and responsibility. This commitment will place them and their ministries in a position of abundant blessing from God (Malachi) 3: 10-12)
In keeping with the requirements of the Manual of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church (IPHC) and the North Carolina Conference By-Laws, we your committee on Finance submit the following:

I. LOCAL CHURCH BOARDS AND OFFICIALS

A. No person shall hold any position of teaching or leadership in any department of the local church unless he or she pays their full tithe into the Pentecostal Holiness Church. While everyone is encouraged to give offerings to building funds, missions, schools, and other approved conference and denominational needs, such offerings are not to be considered tithe.

B. All reports and monies from either church secretaries or credentialed ministers shall be mailed in time to arrive at the North Carolina Conference Resource Development Center (RDC) by the tenth day of each month.

C. Each local church board or board-appointed committee, with pastoral advice, shall prepare an annual calendar year budget. This budget shall be recommended by the pastor and church board for adoption by the church body.

D. All churches shall report monthly, and annually to the Conference all monies received.

E. Churches shall not divert income that is derived from tithes and other non-designated sources into special accounts or funds to avoid payment of General Tithe and Conference Allocation.

F. All Churches should pay their total General tithe (10%) and should pay the Conference Allocation obligations before undertaking any other commitments.

II. MINISTER'S SALARIES AND BENEFITS

A. SENIOR PASTORS: churches should provide the Senior Pastor an adequate salary plus housing and utilities, and benefits according to the following guidelines:

1. TRAVEL: Churches are encouraged to use an accountable reimbursement plan for travel and other professional expenses. Travel is to be reimbursed at the IRS-approved rate.
2. INSURANCE: churches should pay the pastor's family health care insurance premium or establish and fund a flexible spending account (Cafeteria Plan) for medical expenses. The church should also consider disability insurance and term life insurance during the pastor's tenure at the church.
3. SELF-EMPLOYMENT TAX: The church should pay the pastor's total self-employment tax due on compensation from the church.
4. RETIREMENT: In harmony with the recommendation of the IPHC Manual for fringe benefits, we recommend that each local church pay the pastor's retirement in the amount of at least (7%) to the General Retirement Annuity program and the amount designated by the conference to the North Carolina Conference Retirement Program.
5. HOUSING: each church should provide a parsonage or housing allowance and utilities to include, but not be limited to, heat, electricity, water, phone basic rate, and garbage service. Where a parsonage is provided the church is encouraged to contribute to a housing equity escrow account for their pastor.
6. SPECIAL DAYS: The Church Board should consider at least a week's salary for the pastor as a Christmas gift and for Pastor Appreciation Day. They should consider an appropriate gift for Birthday and Anniversary. The Pastor's Family should be given consideration as well.
7. PROPERTY INSURANCE: The church should include coverage for the contents of the parsonage and the minister's furnishings in their total insurance package. Consideration should also be given for full coverage of the pastor's belongings in the church office.
8. CONTINUING EDUCATION: The church is encouraged to pay the cost of continuing education for the pastor relative to meeting requirements to maintain ministerial credentials as adopted by the general conference.
9. REVIVALS: Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year.
10. VACATION: Ministers should receive vacation with pay according to the following schedule that is based upon total years in full-time ministry.

1-5 years	2 weeks
6-14 years	3 weeks
15 years, up	4 weeks

If at the time of a pastoral change a Pastor has not had all his due vacation he should be compensated for all unused vacation time accrued during the current year.

11. SALARY REVIEW: Pastor's salaries shall be reviewed annually as adopted by the General Conference and a copy of the salary review should be mailed to the North Carolina Conference RDC. Churches are encouraged to establish a cost of living adjustment (COLA) at least equal to the annual Social Security COLA as a minimum salary adjustment consideration.

12. OUTSIDE WORK: In the event a church is unable to compensate the Pastor according to these guidelines, the pastor shall be permitted to work outside the church in order to properly provide for his/her family.

B. ASSOCIATE PASTORS AND OTHER FULL-TIME MINISTERIAL STAFF:
Each local church shall provide the full-time Associate Pastors and ministers and staff adequate salary. Fair consideration should also be given for all benefit items listed above for the Senior Pastor.

C. FULL-TIME EVANGELISTS
To insure that our evangelists are properly compensated, we recommend:

1. Churches employing full-time evangelists (those deriving their major support from revivals) should pay them no less than the salary of their pastor per week plus travel. In addition, churches are encouraged to receive free will offerings for the evangelist.
2. Revivals embracing two weekends shall be considered two full weeks in terms of compensation.
3. In the event a church cancels a revival with a full-time evangelist without giving the evangelist at least a 30 day - notice, the church should pay the evangelist if he/she is unable to fill that time slot in his/her schedule.

III. CONFERENCE

A. Moving to a Biblical tithe (10%) for all churches and following mandates from the 2005 General Conference, the Conference Allocation from our North Carolina Churches for this quadrennium shall be:
For the year 2006- four percent (4%)
Beginning January 2007 - three percent (3%)
Beginning January 2008- two percent (2%)
Beginning January, 2009- one percent (1%)
Beginning January 2010- 0% conference allocation
The Conference Allocation is contributed by all churches in addition to the General Tithe (10%)

B. The following budget allocations shall be made for this quadrennium:

1. Conference Church Education 8%
2. Conference Evangelism 16%
3. Conference Superannuation 24%
4. Conference Sabbatical Program 1%
5. Conference Administration and Capital Improvements 51%

C. The Conference Board shall make appropriate monetary gifts to IPHC and IPHC-Affiliate colleges annually during this quadrennium.

D. Conference Personnel Salaries.
1. Salaries of all Conference personnel shall be reviewed annually and adjusted as deemed appropriate by the Conference Board.
2. In addition and separate from the salaries of Conference Officials, the Conference Board shall pay appropriate housing, equity, utilities and benefits as defined in this report.
3. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her department.

E. A ministerial tuition scholarship of $300.00 shall be awarded to ministerial students holding credentials with the North Carolina Conference of the IPHC, who are attending an IPHC or IPHC - affiliate college in preparation for full-time ministry. This scholarship shall be awarded during their Junior and/or Senior years. Students must apply for this scholarship on a form provided by the Conference Resource Development Center.

F. IPHC Women's Ministries
1. The Women's Ministries shall be the bearer of the Conference gifts to our IPHC and IPHC affiliate schools and shall present them at the "Feasts of Ingathering" or other designated school event.
2. Due to the growth of the women's ministries department and the demands this position places on the conference women's ministries director, the conference board should continue to move toward a full-time salaried women's ministries director and include this salary in the conference budget as soon as the funds are available.

G. Falcon Children's Home
1. That each pastor, in cooperation with the women's ministries orient his/her local church board and congregation with various ways of supporting this ministry.
2. Giving to and attending harvest train (Tuesday before Thanksgiving each year).
3. Memorial and honor gifts
4. Visiting resource homes. These are families who have received prior approval to take children into their homes for visitation, weekend visits, and holidays. (These visits typically would be as follows: Easter, summer vacations, Thanksgiving and Christmas, or as designated by Falcon Children's Home).

5. Volunteer Services. These are approved individuals who donate their time and effort by working on the campus of the home as a volunteer in whatever capacity deemed appropriate by the children's home superintendent.
6. General Clothing Fund
7. Special Christmas emphasis with visits, cottage or campus parties, and assistance of the home in providing presents to the children.
8. The home's on-going needed supplies throughout the year by the home can be met through individuals, local churches, retail, wholesale and other organizations.

God has given called and anointed ministers to the Church "for the perfecting of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ." (Ephesians 4:12) We commend the churches of the North Carolina Conference for the high esteem in which they hold these God-called men and women and for the resources they devote to enable them to fulfill the work to which God has called them.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

COMMITTEE ON APPRECIATION REPORT
2006 QUADRENNIAL CONFERENCE
MAY 20, 2006

Men and women who are ministers of true distinction do not serve for the honor and praise of man. Those whose stories will survive their own times labor to hear the words of commendation and reward that can only be spoken by their eternal God. We are reminded in Matthew 25 of these words, "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your Master's happiness." These words alone will satisfy the demands of devotion and the sacrifices of ministry that have been experienced by the faithful.

At best we are gathered here today to express our appreciation as the body of Christ for God's chosen servants. They have quietly served God's kingdom purposes without worldly notice, but they have added to our journey and enriched our faith by their example. The world is truly a better place because the men and women we honor today have walked among us.

On the foundation they have laid many will follow and continue to build the kingdom of God. Together we celebrate the past and seize the future for the glory of God.

REV. PAUL WEAVER

Rev. Paul Weaver was born on December 15, 1943 to Rev. Fred Weaver and his wife, Lillie. Blessed by the rich heritage of the Holiness – Pentecostal movement Brother Paul gave his heart to the Lord on November 13, 1960 in a revival his brother George was conduction at the Micro Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Because of the Godly influences of his parents and Pastor James Evans, Paul became aware of God's call upon his life at an early age. He took the initial step of receiving his local minister's certificate in 1962 in a district conference at Bizzell Grove PH Church. When asked if he were there because his father and brothers were ministers of if he knew he was called, he quickly retorted, "if I did not know I was called I would not be here."

Shortly thereafter Paul met his bride to be, Miss Joy Crocker. One of the first questions Paul had to resolve was the willingness of Joy to serve as a minister's wife. They were married on September 17, 1965 in the home of Rev. James Johnson of Smithfield. To their union was added a daughter, Paula, in 1973 and a son, Wesley in 1977.

Committed to being his very best for the cause of Jesus Christ, Brother Paul attended William Carter College in Goldsboro, NC for four years receiving his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Religious Education. In those four years Paul was never absent or tardy from a single class he took. Licensed in 1974 and ordained in 1976 he served briefly as the pastor of Garland PH Church and for 12 years was the pastor of the Sims PH Church. When visited by then Superintendent T. Elwood Long, Paul heard these words that he will never forget from his leader, "I have never met a pastor that cared for his people more than Paul Weaver." Today we honor Paul and Joy Weaver for their committed, loving and humble service to the kingdom of God.

REV REUBEN MOSLEY

From a child, the Rev. Reuben Mosley, exhibited a strong commitment to excellence and achievement in his life. Born in 1940 to Fonsie Esther and Mamie Walston Mosley. He was always a good student in school, graduating from Cooper High School as Salutatorian and then repeating the same feat as a graduate of Homes College of the Bible earning his Theology of the Bible degree. He concluded his formal training at Southern Wesleyan University with his Batchelor of arts degree in 1974.

It was in 1953 that Reuben as a boy of 13 years of age began his strategic spiritual journey for Jesus Christ. On Mother's Day of that year at the Thompson Chapel PH Church, a first cousin, Talmadge, or better know as T. Mosley, carried him to church and led him to the Lord. From that early childhood experience Brother Reuben pursued his destiny as a minister of the gospel receiving his local minister's certificate in 1963, his minister's license in 1967 and his ordination in 1969. This entire pursuit was prompted by a still, small voice that called to Reuben twice in the waking moments of a summer day when he was just 16 years old.

Reuben has shared this journey with his high school sweetheart, Annie Ruth Mosley. As Reuben put it, "They fell in love forever" and married at the Thompson Chapel PH Church on June 9, 1962. They are the proud parents of a daughter, Cynthia Ann and son, Vincent Jerome. They also are now very focused on their four grandchildren who delight them with love and excitement.

Reuben has had a distinguished career pasturing the following churches: Fuquay Varina, Spring Hope, Smithfield, Roper, Chadbourn, Thompson Chapel, Thunder Swamp, Wallace, Pike's Crossroads, Vaughn's Chapel, Selma and Merritt's Chapel. He has also served on various district committees, performed numerous conference assignments and was a member of the Conference Evangelism Board for 6 years.

We celebrate today the many accomplishments of Reuben and Annie Ruth Mosley.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
MAY 20, 2006
MEMOIRS

"Then Jonathan said to David, tomorrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty." (I Samuel 20:18) Today we honor the lives and memories of several of our fellow travelers whose statue in life makes their absence obvious. They have fought the battle, won the day, and found a good place to cross over.

REVEREND WILBERT G. BATTEN
AUGUST 10, 1911 – DECEMBER 13, 2005

The Reverend Wilbert G. Batten, of U. S. 111 north, went to be with his Lord on Tuesday morning, December 13, 2005, at his home. He had been sick for some time. At the time of his death he was the oldest North Carolina Conference minister.

Brother Batten's parents were L. M. and Bertie Batten of Johnston County. He was saved and joined the family of Christ in 1923 at the Micro Missionary Baptist Church. He was a retired Pentecostal Holiness Minister and member of the Whitley Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Rev. Batten received his first license to preach in 1935 when he was granted a Missions Worker's License. He received license with the North Carolina Conference in the summer of 1935 at the Annual Conference in Falcon. He was ordained by the Annual Conference in Falcon in 1938. He served in many capacities in the Conference, primarily as pastor and evangelist. He was known for his singing and for many years was a member of the Whitley Quartet. He was retired with the Conference in 1976.

However, he continued to preach at every opportunity. A minister of the Gospel never does really retire. He was very active in these years in ministry with the Batten family singers.

During his active pastoral years he would pastor seventeen churches over a period of forty-two years. He pastored during those years when pastors moved often – whether they were ready or not. These are the churches he pastored: Little Creek, Jones Grove, Lambs Grove, Calypso, Belfast, Bizzell Grove, Greenleaf, Niagara, Pikes Cross Roads, Saint John, Antioch, Carson Memorial, Verona, Selma, Thompson Chapel, Airboro and Fremont. His last pastorate was at Selma where he stayed seven years.

Reverend W. G. Batten was blessed to have two fine Pentecostal ladies to walk by his side. He met and married Ethel Mae Howell in 1933. She was a true pastor's wife and mother of his children. She slipped to heaven during the Christmas season in 1982. They had been married for forty-eight years. In March 1984, he married Margaret Hamm. She has been such a blessing to Brother Batten and ministered faithfully to him during his sickness. Reverend Batten is survived by his wife, Margaret H. Batten; six children (all six are Christians and serving the Lord in various capacities): three sons, W. J. Batten and his wife, LaRue, of Richmond,Virginia, Morris H. Batten and his wife, Margie, of Oxford, N.C., and M. L. (Roy) Batten and his wife, Cathy, of Goldsboro; three daughters, Edna M. Whaley and her husband, Kenneth, of Goldsboro, Myrtle R. Mumford and her husband, Carl F., of Lucama, and Mary Ellen Pate and her husband, H. F. Pate Jr., of Goldsboro; one stepson, Richard Hamm of Goldsboro; two stepdaughters, Debbie Witherington and her husband, Linwood, of Goldsboro and Annette Gurley and her husband, Gene, of Goldsboro; 15 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; and five step great-grandchildren; and one brother-in-law, Noggie Smith of Goldsboro.

ANNA BELLE BRAXTON BLALOCK
MARCH 30 - APRIL 4, 2006

Mrs. Anna Belle Blalock was laid to rest on Friday, April 7, 2006, this was a Wonderful Christian Lady. The funeral was held at the Farmville Funeral Home in Farmville. The service was conducted by her two preacher sons Jesse and Frank. It was a marvelous service for one extraordinary lady. Anna Belle Blalock was a Local Church Minister of the North Carolina Conference (formerly called Mission Worker). She was saved at the age of sixteen. She loved her Lord with a passion and served Him with passion. She was a woman that pursued God in everything she did. She wanted more and more of His presence. She played the guitar, sang and preached at every opportunity.

She was a woman of perseverance. It was her joy to rear 9 children. She did so with provision, patience, discipline, and love. She continued to lead her family after her husband, Johnnie, went to heaven in 1976. She and her husband were charter members of the Farmville Church.

She was a woman of prayer. She knew how to get in touch with the Lord. Many called on her to intercede on their behalf. She would do so with Power and faith. It was her commitment to prayer that influenced her to give out many prayer aprons.

It was always her desire to have some of her children to preach. Frank began preaching at eleven and Jesse began when he was twelve. She was the chauffeur for her two preacher boys. Drive she did, and preach they did. They still are men of God and excellent preachers of the Word. She was the example before them.

She was a woman of the pneuma (Spirit). She knew how to be obedient to the Spirit. My how He used her to bless others.

She was a woman of provision. She was faithful to her church in giving.
At one point she gave $500 she had saved up for new furniture to Missions – all of it. She would provide cakes to the sick and bereaved. On one day, she cooked forty cakes. That must be a record, but she had the drive and energy for it.

She loved the Farmville Church and worshipped and ministered there for years. During the last twelve years she attended the Tarboro Church where her son Jesse pastored. She was known and loved by both churches. Here is a lady that did all she could for her Lord for over seventy four years as a Christian. Her legacy lives on! Only time and eternity will reveal her great influence to the Kingdom and the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

DONALD RAY DOWDY
FEBRUARY 23, 1930 – APRIL30, 2006

Brother Donald Dowdy went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, April 30, 2006. He had been sick for some period of time. Brother Donald was the husband of evangelist Reverend Betty Dowdy.

A memorial celebration service was conducted at the Central Church of God on Tuesday, May 2, 2006. If Brother Dowdy had lived until June, he would have been married to Sister Betty for 56 years. Together they had four children. Their sons had already passed away. Their daughters, Brenda and Deborah, have faithfully cared for their parents for some time. Donald Dowdy was a faithful companion and supporter to his evangelist wife. Betty began ministry in 1955 in Eastern Virginia as a Mission Worker. She was licensed in 1968 in Richmond, Virginia and ordained in 1981 in Falcon. Together they served some thirty years in evangelistic work.

For eleven years this ministry couple served in the pastorate. Sister Dowdy pastored the Good Shepherd church in the Eastern Virginia Conference for four years: 1968-1972. She also assisted in two mission works for one year. She pastored two churches in the North Carolina Conference after transferring in 1977. These were the Merritts Chapel Church and the Red Springs Church. They were at Red Springs from 1992 – 1997.

Donald Dowdy loved the Lord. He worked and stood beside his wife. A preacher wife could have no better husband. Those that knew him loved him.

REVEREND JOSEPH REGINALD GUTHRIE
MARCH 17, 1917 - OCTOBER 26, 2005

Reverend Joseph Guthrie passed away on Wednesday, October 26, 2005.

Joseph Reginald Guthrie was born March 17, 1917 to Jimmie and Carrie Guthrie of Harkers Island. He graduated from High School in 1936. During his high school days, Joseph began dating the "sweetheart" of his life, Blonnie Mae. They courted for three years and were married on June 1, 1940. In June they celebrated sixty-five years together.

To this union were born three children; Betty Jo, Jimmy, and Randy. Shortly after their marriage, Blonnie Mae accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior in 1944 and in February of 1945, Joseph accepted the LORD. Shortly after Joseph's new birth, the LORD called him to preach. Brother Guthrie received his Mission Worker's License in 1951. He received License with the North Carolina Conference in 1961. He was ordained in 1964. He was retired in 1974.

Joseph's first pastorate was Graham Memorial Pentecostal Holiness Church in Mill Creek, North Carolina. After this Joseph pastored Swansboro Pentecostal Holiness Church, and Ebenezer Pentecostal Holiness Church in Nashville, North Carolina.

In 1974 Joseph and Blonnie Mae left the pastorate, due to health conditions, and moved back to Harkers Island. Reverend and Mrs. Guthrie have been actively involved in the local church, the Harkers Island Pentecostal Holiness Church, from that time until the present. Reverend and Mrs. Guthrie have served as Sunday school teachers and Blonnie Mae continues to serve as the church pianist.

Brother and Sister Guthrie have seven grandchildren. They were also blessed with five great-grandchildren. Joseph Guthrie was a fine example of a Christian Brother and man of God. He was a faithful member of the North Carolina Conference. He was a remarkable man. Rev. Joseph Guthrie lived according to Nehemiah 8:10 "for the joy of the LORD is you strength."

Brother Joseph was a man with many attributes. He was a man of great faith who always trusted in the divine, healing power of the Lord Jesus Christ, never admitting that he was sick. His life was a testimony to this very fact, in that he was hospitalized only one time in 88 years. He will be remembered as a man that had the most positive outlook on life. Seldom will one find a person with such a positive attitude. Brother Joseph always had an encouraging word, and he endeavored to lift your spirit when in his company. He was a man full of humor. When in his presence, he would have you in stitches. He sure did prescribe to the scripture in Proverbs 17:22 "A merry heart doeth good like medicine."

Yes, last and foremost, he was a minister of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. He made it a point to lift up the Lord Jesus Christ wherever he was; even witnessing to the nurses in the hospital. Let us exhibit some of these attributes as we make our pilgrimage toward our heavenly home. Yes, Brother Joseph will always be remembered as – A remarkable man.

REVEREND GEORGIA N. OSBORNE
APRIL 28, 1925 – DECEMBER 20, 2005

Reverend Mrs. Georgia Osborne was relieved of her suffering and was promoted to heaven on Tuesday, December 20, 2005. She had battled but with victory through an extended illness. She died as she lived with the grace and trust in the Lord.

Sister Osborne was born April 28, 1925 in Dillon County, South Carolina to William B. Norman and Nealy M. Norman. She was converted to Christ in 1934 at the Lake View Pentecostal Holiness Church. In 1955 she was called to preach and received her Mission Worker's License at the Lake View, South Carolina District Conference. The South Carolina Conference licensed her in 1957 at the Annual Conference in Lake City, South Carolina. She was later ordained by the North Carolina Conference in Falcon in 1975. Reverend Osborne transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1964. She was retired by the Conference in 1987.

Reverend Mrs. Osborne served the kingdom well as an evangelist for over thirty years. She faithfully pastored for ten years until her health prohibited her from continuing. She pastored the Hope Mills Church for four years and the Abottsburg Church for six years. During her tenure as pastor both churches grew and expanded in the Lord. While at Hope Mills she led the church in a building project and in relocation. During her tenure at Hope Mills she returned to her home church in Lake View, South Carolina and preached a youth revival. There were 23 experiences. Praise the Lord!

Reverend Osborne is survived by her husband Tillman C. Osborne and son J. Mark Osborne, both of the home. She has one living sister, Ruth N. Page, of Lake View, South Carolina. Both her husband and her son faithfully supported and encouraged her in the ministry.

ANNIE LOIS NEIGHBOURS POPE

Mrs. Lois Pope, 77, wife of Reverend Sherrill Pope, passed away on Thursday morning, February 16th, 2006 at Wake Medical Center. A faithful pastor's wife has gone to her eternal rest.

Sister Pope was born in Harnett County to the late Silas C. and Medie C. Neighbours. She was preceded in death by a son, Ronald C. Pope, and a sister, Marie N. Buckalew.

Mrs. Lois Pope stood by her husband through four pastorates: Johnson Memorial, Trinity, Coraleigh, and Community Chapel. They were married in March 1947. They were bi-vocational pastors, working faithfully to shepherd the flock and to provide for their families well being. She was known as a woman of unfeigned faith and a great Bible teacher. She taught Sunday school through most of her adult years. She was known as an encourager.

Survivors include her husband, Reverend Sherrill Pope of Dunn; a daughter, Sharon Pope of Erwin; sons, Allen Pope and wife Sandra, Dee Pope and wife Connie, Marshal Pope, Adam Pope and wife Sandy, Micheal Pope and wife Karen and Andrew Pope and wife Vondy, all of Dunn; sisters, Evanglene N. Lee, Lettie N. Hubarger and Brenda N. Killebrew, all of Benson, Ellen N. Grimes of Fayetteville and Patricia N. Glover of Erwin: 15 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Sister Pope was a multi-talented woman. She seemed to be able to do anything – preach, teach, paint, plumb, crochet, quilt, etc. Her family described her as a strong willed woman of faith who walked lightly but carried a big stick.

She will be missed by all who knew and loved her! She made a difference for the kingdom.

REVEREND NELSON T. SIMPSON
MARCH 5, 1931 – FEBRUARY 27, 2006

Reverend Nelson Simpson was born March 5, 1931. He slipped away to heaven on Monday, February 27, 2006. If he had lived one week longer, he would have been seventy-five years old.

A couple of months before his death Brother Simpson was diagnosed with terminal cancer. The options of treatment offered him were very extensive and stressing. After prayer his decision was to leave all in the hands of the Lord. His desire was that his last days be filled with as much peace as possible. He was ready to meet his Lord.

He was saved at the early age of 14 at a local Free Will Baptist church. In 1964 he hungered for more of the Lord so he attended the Bridgeton Church. Shortly, he was sanctified and baptized with the Holy Spirit. He was called to preach. In October, 1967 he received his Mission Worker's License. He went to work immediately.

Brother Simpson pastored for over thirty-five years. He pastored the New Hope Church, Blounts Creek, for 10 years. He pastored the Alliance and Faison churches for a short while. He was assigned the Trinity Church at South Creek. He served there faithfully for 23 years. During part of his time he also pastored the Hillside Holiness Church.

Pastor Simpson never went on for license or ordination. He was content to be a Mission Worker and in that level do what he could for the Lord. He was known for his commitment and faithfulness. He has heard the Lord say, "well done, good, and faithful servant.

Pastor Simpson is survived by his faithful wife Rosa of 54 years; his four children, Steven, Joan, Kevin, and Karen; ten grandchildren; one brother, John; and many loved nieces and nephews.

The Scriptures say, "Whether we eat or drink, or whatever we do, we do all to the glory of the Lord." That is how Nelson Simpson lived, living all to the glory of the Lord. He will be missed!

Although these are as sure to be missed as Jonathan missed David, we are comforted by the promises of God's Word. "Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." (I Corinthians 15:51-58) "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." (I Thessalonians 4: 16-18)

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2006 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Sixty-Second Annual Convention on Saturday, June 3, 2006 at the new Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle in Falcon, North Carolina. The Convention theme was "Fully Released!"

Registration began at 8:30 a.m. in the foyer of the Tabernacle with Mrs. Marjorie Teachey as Registrar, assisted by the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors. The Mount Olive Women's Ministries of Mount Olive, North Carolina hosted refreshments during registration. Four local Women's Ministries groups, other Conference Ministries, along with one art exhibit had "Show and Sell" displays in the hallway around the auditorium.

Musical Prelude began at 8:30 a.m. by Mrs. Donna Gaddis of the Gateway P.H. Church in Wilmington, NC

Bishop Chris Thompson extended a special welcome to approximately two hundred and fifty lades from across the North Carolina Conference. Bishop Thompson encouraged the ladies to visit the two nursery rooms in the Tabernacle to see what they had helped furnish.

Bishop Thompson also thanked the women of the North Carolina Conference for their contribution of $1,650.28 given at the North Carolina women's Ministries Retreat to buy Psalms 91 bandanas for our military. He shared with us that he was with the troops when the bandanas were presented. He also requested that we continue to pray for them as they leave for Iraq in July.

NCWM Assistant Director, Janice Marshburn led us in prayer.

Missionary Rose Boyd led us into the presence of the Lord through Praise and Worship. We worshiped together as we sang "Spirit of the Lord" and "You Are Great".

Director Deese announced her exciting news of becoming a grandmother, her daughter, Andrea had just given birth to "Carter Henry" a few days prior to the Convention. Needless to say, she and her husband, Henry, are still "in the clouds!".
Director Deese also gave information about the new manuals and the telephone number for ordering from General Women's Ministries.

Superintendent of Falcon Children's Home, Rev. T. Elwood Long, addressed the Convention. He thanked the Women's Ministries and the North Carolina Conference for contributing $134,796.81 in cash and $36,278.92 in commodities to Falcon Children's Home through the WM Sponsored Harvest Train.

Director Deese recognized and introduced the NCWM Board; District Directors; Happy Hearts Coordinator Blanched Pollard; Girl's Ministries Leadership Team; Coordinator Bobbie McNeese; Assistant Coordinator Nancy Roberson, Secretary/Treasurer Mary Clark and Historian Media Lee; Past WM Presidents/Directors, Dollie Davenport, Jean Williams, Sue Parker, Mary Belle Johnson, and Linda M. Thomas. "Gifts from the NCWM were presented to these leaders during this time).

We were again blessed as Rose Boyd sang, "You Raised Me Up". (Christian Version)

Director Deese introduced the Presiding Office for this Convention. Mrs. Linda M. Thomas. Mrs. Thomas serves as General Women's Ministries Assistant Director. She was also elected May 19th, 2006 as the first woman and the first layperson since 1911 to serve on the North Carolina Conference Board.

Mrs. Thomas brought greetings from the International Pentecostal Holiness General Women's Ministries Executive Director, Mrs. Jewelle Stewart.

She then called the Convention to order. Mrs. Thomas called for Terry Boyette, Chairperson of the Decorum Committee to come and present their report for consideration. This report was adopted as read. Mrs. Thomas read the requirements for being a delegate to this Convention. She then declared that the bar would be the two center sections on the lower level of the Tabernacle.

The Decorum report also called for a timekeeper and a parliamentarian to be appointed by the NCWM Board. Rev. Rose Boyd was appointed as timekeeper and former NCWM Director, Sue Parker was appointed as parliamentarian.

Registrar Marjorie Teachey reported that there were 177 Eligible delegates registered.

Mrs. Thomas then requested that North Carolina Women's Ministries Director Patsy Deese to give her Annual Women's Ministries Report.

Director Deese reported that she has had a busy, but enjoyable four years in her position as NCWM Director. She stated that it has been an honor to serve the women of the North Carolina Conference. She thanked them for their contribution of $73,030.20 to our Church Schools; $12,944.29 to Christmas Missions, $3,118.98 to Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM), and $134,796.81 in cash and $36,278.92 in commodities for Falcon Children's Home.

Director Deese thanked the women of the North Carolina Conference for going the second mile by preparing Personal Care Packets for Katrinia victims as well as donating $1,875.24 for the two nursery rooms in the new Culbreth Memorial Auditorium as part of the Renewed Vision Conference Campus Campaign.

She expressed her appreciation for Girl's Ministry Coordinator Bobbie NcNeese, Assistant Coordinator Nancy Roberson, Secretary/Treasurer Mary Clark, and Historian Media Lee; Happy Hearts Coordinator Blanche Pollard , and her assistants, Marjorie Teachey, and Margaret Potter; The Past President's Club chaired by Dollie Davenport; other Past President's Club members, Clara Williams, Jean Williams, Sue Parker, Faye Leggett, Mary Belle Johnson, and Linda Thomas.

She also gave thanks to Janice Marshburn who serves as her Assistant Director; Marjorie Teachey, Secretary/Treasurer; and Board Members Lois Trueblood and Terry Boyette. She stated that each one has her own unique style and talents, but together we "fit" like a puzzle.

Director Deese recognized Westa Barefoot, Margaret Berry, Tammy Padgett, Terri Hodge, Rose Alligood, JoAnn Blackmon, Rose Hubbard, Gale Taylor, Yvonne Jones, Barbara Bishop and Kim Kues, who serve, as District Directors are a blessing to the North Carolina Conference.

She expressed appreciation to Mrs. Dorothy Boyette, who has served us so well as Historian. "we lift off our hats off to you" were the words exclaiming our gratitude.

She is indeed thankful for the NCWM PRAYER TEAM. We are aware of the effect of their prayers.

She is thankful to Bishop Chris Thompson and all the leaders and personnel at the North Carolina Resource Development Center for their leadership, support, and guidance.

She gave thanks to her local church, Maranatha; her Pastor, Matthew Smith, and his wife, Minda for their continued prayers and support.

Last but not least, she expressed her gratitude for "Mr. Henry", her husband, who continues to help and support her as she serves the women of the is Conference.

After Director Deese's report, Mrs. Thomas opened the floor for nominations for NCWM Director.

Director Deese was re-elected by acclamation.

Nominations were opened for Assistant Director, Rev. Janice Marshburn was nominated. A two-thirds majority vote was required for Janice's name to be placed in the nominations. Mrs. Thomas declared the nominations ceased until that vote could be taken. The vote was taken and counted. There was 170 for and 4 against. Nominations were resumed. There were no more nominations. Rev. Marshburn was re-elected by acclamation.

The floor was declared open for nominations for Secretary/Treasurer. Marjorie Teachey was nominated. There were no other Nominations. Marjorie was re-elected by acclamation.

Assistant Director Janice Marshburn gave her report. Her portfolio includes Sharing Sisters and Intercession. Janice is excited about what God is doing in North Carolina Women's Ministries. She is thankful for Intercessory "prayer warriors" who cover the NCWM with prayer. She shared ideas about Sharing Sisters and stated, "If you need me, call me!"

Marjorie Teachey reported that it has been a joy to serve as liaison to Falcon Children's Home and ATAM. She is thankful for all the effort of the women of this Conference.

Board Member, Lois Trueblood reported that she has thoroughly enjoyed having Education as her portfolio. She also reported that because of her and her husband's recent move to Virginia, she will not be able to serve another four years on the WM Board. She expressed her thankfulness to God for the past four years.

Board Member, Terry Boyette reported that is has been a pleasure to serve with Missions as her portfolio. She has attended several missions meetings and has enjoyed working with our Conference Missions Director, Danny Nelson.

Rev. Janice Marshburn, Resolutions Committee Chairperson, read their report. The report was adopted as read.

Rev. Marjorie Teachey, Finance Committee Chairperson, read the Finance Committee Report. A motion was made to strike all of VI (That the North Carolina Women's Ministries retain 5% of special funds to be used for NCWM operational and Administrative purposes.) After discussion, the question was called for. After the voice vote, Mrs. Thomas called for a division of the house. The motion lost. The report was adopted.

Mrs. Thomas opened the floor for nominations for a Board Member. Terry Boyette was nominated. Terry was re-elected by acclamation.

Nominations were again opened for a Board Member. Nominated were, Jane Warren, Yvonne Jones, Darnell Nelms, Rose Hubbard, Anne Gurley, Barbara Bishop and Margaret Berry. Yvonne Jones and Margaret Berry requested that their names not be considered. Eight-eight (88) votes were needed to be elected. On the first ballot the vote was as follows:

Jane Warren, 48; Darnell Nelms, 58; Rose Hubbard 41; Anne Gurley, 19; Barbara Bishop, 9. Barbara Bishop's name was dropped.

The second ballot was as follows: Jane Warren, 43; Darnell Nelms, 83; Rose Hubbard, 43; Anne Gurley, 9. Anne Gurley' name was dropped.

The third ballot was as follows: Jane Warren, 24; Darnell Nelms, 117; Rose Hubbard, 32. Darnell Nelms was elected.

A copy of this Memoirs Report will be mailed to each local Women's Ministry. We ask that each local Director get a copy to the families of each lady whose names have been read here this morning.

Everyone joined Rev. Rose Boyd as she sang, "When They Ring Those Golden Bells"

North Carolina Women's Ministries Assistant Director, Rev. Janie Marshburn, presented Director Patsy Deese with a gift of appreciation from the North Carolina Women's Ministries.

Mrs. Thomas then invited the newly elected NCWM Officers to come and stand in front of the rostrum for the charge and installation.

Mrs. Thomas called our attention to I Corinthians 16:9 and Colossians 3:12-17. She charged us to stay "humble, kind, forgiving, longsuffering and merciful." She also encouraged us to stay focused on what God has called us to do. And above all, to LOVE!!

Mrs. Thomas asked Bishop Chris Thompson and all former NCWM Board Members to join her at the front and help as she prayed the prayer of installation and dedication.

Afterward, everyone else was invited to the front to greet the newly elected officials.

The Sixty-Second NCWM Convention closed with a time of fellowship.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marjorie Teachey,
NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

A. No absentee or proxy voting shall be permitted.
B. Voting on motions, resolutions and acceptance of reports shall be by voice.
C. After the vote has been taken by voice, the Chair or any member of the Convention shall have the privilege of calling for a division of the house.
D. After a vote, which is not unanimous, is declared by the Chair, it cannot be made unanimous by voting to make it so.

VIII. Nominations and Elections

A. Nominations for all officials shall be made by voice from the floor, and voting shall be by ballot.
B. An conference W.M. office holder who is at the conclusion of her second term in her current office may be considered for nomination for a third term under the following condition: A motion must be offered to allow such office holder to be nominated for a third term for the same office. This motion must receive a two-thirds ballot vote of the delegation to pass. Then the name of said office holder may be place in nomination as well as any other names that are offered for nomination. This procedure is required for each individual office rather than for the entire election.
C. All elections shall be determined by a majority vote.
D. In electing a person for an executive office, if there is no election on the first ballot, the four nominees with the highest number of votes shall be run on the second ballot. If there is no election of the second ballot the 2 person(s) with the highest number of votes shall run on the third ballot. In the event there is a tie, the Convention shall continue balloting until there is an election.

IX. Convention Appointments

The NCWM Board shall appoint a parliamentarian and a timekeeper to serve the business session of the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

Terry Boyette, Chair

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
2005-2006 REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." Galatians 5:1

Our theme for this NCWM Convention is "Fully Released". The last four years we have endeavored to help you, the women of the North Carolina Conference, to be all that God has called you to be. We started with the NCWM Leadership Seminar in January 2003 with the theme, "Becoming a Woman of Passion" through our NCWM Retreat this year, "Soaring to Renewal". God has designed every Seminar, Retreat, and Convention and the results are just a small testimony of what He wants to do.

I am honored to serve as your Conference Women's Ministries Director. The last four years have been a wonderful journey and I thank you for allowing me the privilege of worshipping and serving with you. I never dreamed that I would be in such an awesome place at this time in my life.

Since our convention last year, I have traveled 6764 miles across the North Carolina Conference. You have allowed me to be a part of your WM Day observances, Sharing Sister programs, and your local meetings. I have held workshops and training sessions, planned and executed our Leadership Seminar, the NCWM Retreat, local Director's Council, District Director's training and participated in district rallies.

Thank you for your desire to equip our young men and women for Christian life and ministry by supporting our church schools. Your contributions to Feast of Ingathering, including matching funds, were $73,030.20. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern College, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College.

You gave $12,944.29 toward Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts, additionally, you supported other mission's projects in the amount of $4,559.00.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of $134,796.81 in cash and $36,278.92 in commodities from the North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. You gave $3,118.98 to the Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM).

You went the extra mile by preparing Personal Care Packets for Katrina victims. In an effort to be a part of the Renewed Vision for the Conference Campus Campaign, you gave $1,875.24 for the two nursery rooms in the new Culbreth Memorial Auditorium.

Girl's Ministry is a strong, vital arm of Women's Ministries. It has grown under the leadership of BOBBIE NCNEESE and the leadership team, NANCY ROBERSTON, MARY CLARK AND MEDIA LEE. We have been blessed to have these talented women serve the North Carolina conference. Thank you for all your hard work and dedication. You are appreciated.

Under the leadership of BLANCHE POLLARD and assisted by MARJORIE TEACHEY & MARGARET PORTER, the HAPPY HEARTS are going as strong as ever. These women continue to do an excellent job in planning and promoting the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. This year was my first trip with the Happy Hearts and it was wonderful! The excitement and zeal among our senior adults is contagious. Thank you for doing such a great job!

THE PAST PRESIDENTS'S CLUB chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT is a great support group. Dollie, along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARTER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON AND LINDA M. THOMAS are wonderful encouragers. Their wisdom and leadership is "greatly to be praised"! It is so wonderful to know they are available when I face a new challenge and need prayer and direction. Thank you for your loving support.

NCWM Board Members, JANICE, MARJORIE, LOIS AND TERRY are committed to serving the North Carolina Women Ministries. God has ordained their steps for this season in their lives. I cannot tell you how much I appreciate each one of them and the special talents and insight they bring to this council. Each one has her own unique style and talents, but together we "fit", just like a puzzle. Thank you for allowing the Lord to use you to minister to the women of this Conference.

NCWM DISTRICT DIRECTORS are a blessing from the Lord. They continue to serve in this ministry with a strong desire to lend a hand whenever possible. They are a great vehicle for communication between Conference programs and activities and the local church. They serve as registrars and helpers at Conference functions. They promote Women's Ministries on the local level by organizing rallies, leadership meetings and keeping in touch with local directors. A very special thank you to ROSE ALLIGOOD, WESTA BAREFOOT, MARGARET BERRY, BARBARA BISHOP, JOANN BLACKMON, TERRI HODGE, ROSE HUBBARD, YVONNE JONES, TAMMY PADGETTE, GALE TAYLOR and KIM KUES.

To our NCWM HISTORIAN, DOROTHY BOYETTE, our hats are off to you. You have been a solid rock. We can always depend on you to take pictures of our activities and then display them at our different functions. You have been a true servant of the Lord. Thank you for using your creative talents for the North Carolina women's Ministries. You are loved and appreciated.

Thank you to the RDC personnel and the NC Conference Board for their continued love and support. They are a great support team and I appreciate all their hard work and dedication to the work of this ministry and they always do it with a servant's heart.

NC Conference BISHOP CHRIS THOMPSON continues to share his vision for the future of Women's Ministries. He has been an encourager to this ministry and we appreciate his leadership and continued prayers. Thank you Brother Chris for allowing the Lord to use you to bless us. We are blessed!

We appreciate our First Lady, BETTY THOMPSON, as she serves as Conference Director of the Minister's Wives Fellowship. The Lord has placed a sweet spirit in her to be an encourager and to be mentor to minister's wives. Thank you for using your gifts for the Lord.

To our faithful PRAYER TEAM, we are so thankful that you are our "prayer warriors". We have felt your prayers more than you know. Thank you for continuing to pray for the NCWM Board and the work of Women's Ministries at home and around the world. You are making a difference.

To my home church, Maranatha and my Pastor, Matthew W. Smith and his wife Minda, thank you for you prayers and support of this ministry. You have been so understanding and when I'm away from home and the local church, I know you are praying for me. I appreciate you more than words can say.

Last but not least, I must say thank you to my husband, Henry. "Mr. Henry:" is one of a kind. He continues to support the work of Women's Ministries by helping me. He enables me to serve you. One of his greatest joys is helping with the mail-outs, he has developed his own system for sealing and stamping envelopes and he does it well! I couldn't do all that I do without him. He is a blessing from the Lord.

To each of you may I say thank you for all you do on the local level. You are the instruments that God is using to meet the needs in your home, church and community. We couldn't do all that we do without you. You are awesome and I appreciate each one of you. My prayer is that as this journey continues that you will intentionally find ways to make a difference in reaching the lost for Christ. Thank you for your continued support of the many facets of Women's Ministries and may you continue to be a blessing!

In His Love,

Pats C. Deese
North Carolina women's ministries Director

MEMOIRS REPORT
Presented by... Mary Belle Johnson

A bell is not a bell until someone rings it. A song is not a song until someone sings it. A life is not a life until one has lived it...and live it they did!!!

The story was related to me of the young athlete who suffered a physical impairment. She was going to participate in the Special Olympics and spent endless hours preparing for the event. However, as the day was quickly approaching she became fearful that she could not do this. Her coach, her friends, and her parents especially encouraged her to pursue her goals. "We will be on the sidelines cheering you on every step of the way". Her father told her, I know, she replied, but Cindy's parents are going to do the same for her, and Joey's daddy told Joey he would be a winner in the game. "Sure, all of you will be winners, but we are going to do something different just for you, NOT ONLY WILL WE BE THERE TO CHEER YOU ON, WE ARE GOIND TO BE YOUR BELL RINGERSS ALSO." BELL RINGERS!!!!?? Yes, when you hear the bell ringing, you will know your family is ringing those bells just for you!!!

The day approached....The race began, and just as he promised, when she began to feel she just couldn't go any further, she would hear the bells begin to ring...and the adrenalin would flow again and to the sound of the bells she made it to the finish line.

Today, there a waits for us, those who have departed this life, and on the sidelines of Heaven, They have become our bell ringers. They encourage us, "Do not give up in the race, we are here to cheer you on until you have reached the finish line." "CAN'T YOU HEAR THOSE BELLS NOW RINGING!!???".

These bell ringers are:

Mrs. Lila Green Isaac,

"Miss Lila", as we so affectionately knew her, served as President of the General Woman's Auxiliary from 1961-1977 for a total of 16 years. She was recently laid to rest with her beloved husband in the state of Mississippi. God bless her memory to all who knew, loved and appreciated her articulate leadership.

From the North Carolina Conference, the following ladies have lived their lives so gallantly, and now stand on the sidelines cheering us on. Don's you hear the bells now ringing??

(Please stand if you are a family member or if you are from the local church and/or Women's Ministries. Please remain standing throughout the remainder of this report.)
